Boston Chapter's MARCH MEETING! Thursday, March 13, 2008

Speaker: Rocco Palmo

Topic: "The Good News and the Newsroom: A Vocation at the Crossroads."
<http://whispersintheloggia.blogspot.com>

Rocco Palmo is the author of Whispers in the Loggia, (<http://whispersintheloggia.blogspot.com>) the widely-read daily chronicle on the public life and "inside baseball" of global Catholicism, and US Correspondent for The Tablet, the international Catholic weekly published in London.

Based in his hometown of Philadelphia, Palmo has become a widely-sought authority on the Church's processes and personalities. Catholic News Service dubbed him "The Church Whisperer," and he's appeared in The New York Times, CNN, Associated Press, The Washington Post, BBC, National Public Radio and The San Francisco Chronicle, among other mainstream outlets. In addition to his media work, he travels frequently as a speaker, addressing groups ranging from diocesan gatherings of young adults to national conferences of priests and journalists.

Palmo, 25, attended the University of Pennsylvania, from which he earned a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science.
