Invites you to attend its

Boston Chapter's AUGUST MEETING!
Thursday, August 21, 2008

Speaker: Dr. Jeffery Nelson

Topic: "The Hope Pope: Benedict XVI and the New Evangelization of Culture"

Jeff Nelson became the second president of Thomas More College in September 2006. He came to TMC after 15 years at the Intercollegiate Studies Institute where he served as senior vice president.

Mr. Nelson was part of a small leadership team at ISI that recently concluded a successful anniversary program campaign that raised more than $75 million. He also directed the Institute's marketing and public relations efforts during that campaign. In addition to his executive duties, Mr. Nelson is founding publisher of ISI Books, the Institute's publishing imprint (which published more than 110 books and surpassed $1.5 million in gross revenue during his tenure), and edited two respected journals of thought and opinion: The Intercollegiate Review and The University Bookman

Mr. Nelson has also edited two book collections: Redeeming the Time, by Russell Kirk, and Perfect Sowing: Reflections of a Bookman, by Henry Regnery; co-edited an award winning treasury of the historian John Lukacs' writings entitled Remembered Past; and was project director of the popular national college guide, Choosing the Right College: The Whole Truth About America's Top Schools. President Nelson was recently in a New York Times front-page news article about a major new reference work he co-edited, American Conservatism: An Encyclopedia. He is a frequent and popular guest on radio and television talk shows across the country. He is also co-founder of the Russell Kirk Center; a board member of the G. K. Chesterton Institute; and a member of Legatus, a national organization of Catholic business leaders. Mr. Nelson is a graduate of the University of Detroit and Yale University Divinity School, and is completing his doctorate in American History at the University of Edinburgh (Scotland).
