The Preeminent Organization of Catholic CEOs & Business Leaders
Invites you to attend its

Boston Chapter's SEPTEMBER MEETING!
Thursday, September 24, 2009

Speaker: Tom Peterson
Topic: "Love somebody to Heaven"

For 25 years, Tom Peterson built his career as an award-winning, national corporate advertising executive, earning the praise of nearly 100 successful clients. Tom founded and served as President of three advertising agencies, one of which he started as a junior in college, at age 20.

But Tom's life would radically change forever, after receiving an incredible and transforming Spiritual conversion in 1997, while on a men's retreat from his church. Soon afterward, he founded VirtueMedia.org and CatholicsComeHome.org, educational non-profit media apostolates dedicated the Catholic principles of the sanctity of life and Catholic evangelization.

In the past decade, Peterson has presented to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and at the Vatican. Peterson and his apostolates have been featured in hundreds of media venues on secular and Catholic radio, newspapers, magazines and TV interviews worldwide, including on Fox News and EWTN Live and The Journey Home. Their new CatholicsComeHome.org ads were aired on the JumboTron at the Papal Mass in Washington DC, and at the National Prayer breakfast for 2,500 top Catholic leaders.

Tom knows his vocation in life is to evangelize souls using the power of media. He encourages others to seek God's plan for their lives, to help change our world for the better. Recently, Tom was awarded the 2009 Special Evangelization Award by Legatus, at their Summit in Bermuda.

Tom and Tricia, his wife of 22 years, and their three daughters live in the Atlanta suburbs, where they are active members in Legatus and their parish.
